Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

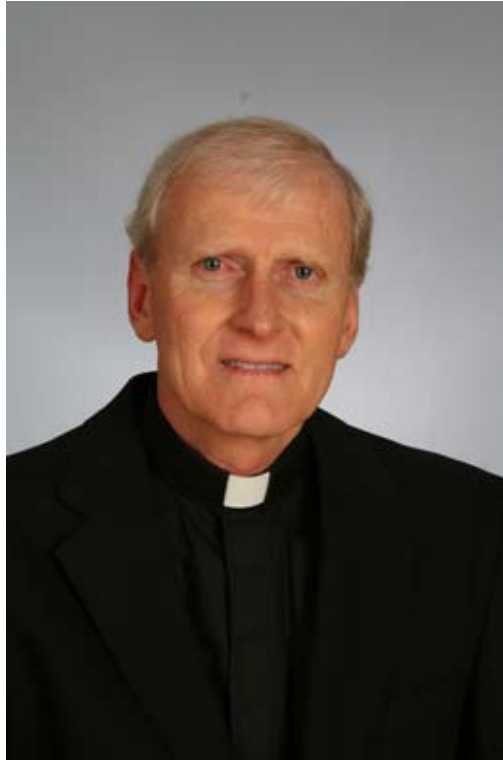

New Frontiers!

At its recently completed 35th General Congregation, the Society of Jesus not only elected a new Superior General, Adolfo Nicolás, SJ, but also affirmed its commitment to the Church to be available to the “new frontiers of our time.” These frontiers include our mission among the poor and with the poor, promoting the Spiritual Exercises, living out a sincere concern for the human and Christian formation of a complete cross-section of the people of this world, and addressing in harmony with the Magisterium the major issues of today.

Like many Jesuits, I have been inspired by this commitment. Moreover, it coincides with my being missioned by the Society to St. Ignatius Loyola Church. I am delighted to be here! Naturally, it will take some time for me to become familiar with the many programs and people that make up St. Ignatius. Also, it will take time for you to come to know me. I ask your patience, especially in getting to know your names, as we begin to share our lives at the table of the Lord and in the parish ministries that will bring us together. While I have little doubt that this will occur, it may be helpful to share some of my background as a way of beginning this process.

I was born in Brooklyn, and am the third of 11 children. I was raised in Queens, and attended Xavier High School in Manhattan. After high school, I completed a B.S. in Biology at Boston College, followed by a M.D. at Georgetown University School of Medicine. My post graduate training included a pediatric residency at the University of Virginia, a pediatric endocrinology fellowship at the University of Iowa, and basic science research training at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, MD.

After much soul searching, I left the NIH in 1990 to provide medical relief to the poor of El Salvador during that country’s civil war. Upon returning to the United States three years later, I obtained master’s degrees in theology from Boston College in 1994 and public health from Johns Hopkins University in 1995. Following these studies, I worked as a pediatrician at Mercy Hospital and Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, MD and oversaw a nutrition intervention program for infants in Guatemala City, Guatemala.

In 2003, I entered the Society of Jesus. During my Jesuit formation, in addition to theology and philosophy studies, I spent summers providing medical relief to poor children in Africa and Asia. I also offered spiritual direction and directed retreats, including the full Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola, at Saint Ignatius Retreat House in Manhasset, NY. Finally, last year I served as a deacon at the Paulist Center in Boston, MA. I was ordained to priesthood June 14, 2008 by Edward Cardinal Egan at Fordham University after having completed a licentiate in Sacred Theology at the Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge, MA.

I now look forward to serving you at Saint Ignatius Parish. May our work together allow us to learn from each other and explore the Church’s call to the Society of Jesus and those who collaborate with us to be available to the “new frontiers of our time,” both here at St. Ignatius and beyond its doors, offering what abilities we have in service to God’s kingdom and all God’s people.

Present a Program in

CATHOLIC TEACHINGS

Tuesday, September 30, at 7PM
in the Parish House

“Become a Saint (in 20 minutes)”

Presented by Fr. James Martin, S.J.

Come hear Jesuit Father James Martin, assisting priest at St. Ignatius, author of the bestselling book My Life with the Saints, and frequent media commentator (NPR, “The O’Reilly Factor” and “The Colbert Report”) answer the question:

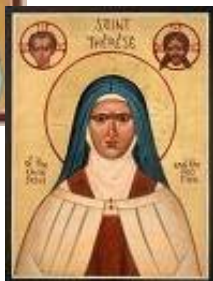

What do the lives of the saints have to do with me?

Find out how the saints teach us about discovering who we are and what we are meant to do in life, and how holiness means “being who you are.”

SPACE IS LIMITED - PLEASE RSVP TO: rsvp@stignatiusloyola.org

St. Ignatius of Loyola

St. Therese of Lisieux

Father James Martin, a Jesuit priest and author, has led a thoroughly modern life: from a lukewarm childhood Catholicism, to the Wharton School of Business, to the executive fast track at General Electric, to the Jesuits, to a media career in Manhattan. But at every step along the way he has been accompanied by special friends—the saints of the Catholic Church. These holy men and women are not just historical figures to him. Martin’s attachment to them is real and personal. The saints have guided him. He convincingly shows how the saints can be our friends too.

Martin’s saintly friends come from the whole of Christian history—from St. Paul to John XXIII—and they include St. Therese of Lisieux, Joan of Arc, Ignatius Loyola and other beloved figures. They accompany the author on a pilgrimage that includes stops in a sunlit square of a French town, a quiet retreat house on a New England beach, the housing projects in inner-city Chicago, the sprawling slums of Nairobi, and a gorgeous Baroque church in Rome. As James Martin’s inspiring, witty, and surprising account unfolds, we see how saints can help us to find our way in the world. His book has sold almost 75,000 copies and won a 2007 Christopher Award and was named on of Publishers Weekly’s “Best Books” of the year.

$10 suggested contribution to support the work of CRS Uganda for: strengthening community networks of support, mediation and dialogue to settle conflicts, reintegration of formerly abducted people, educational and vocational opportunities for war-affected children and adolescents.

(Checks payable to Catholic Relief Services, a 501-3c corporation)

Sr. Pauline will also speak at Fordham University. See information below.

Sr. Pauline Acayo oversees CRS' peacebuilding projects in Uganda, including initiatives promoting dialogue and mediation among the various ethnic groups in northern Uganda.

She escaped abduction by the Lord's Resistance Army, and many of her family and relatives lived in camps for internally displaced people. Some are still in the hands of the rebels.

Sr. Pauline has also advised the International Criminal Court on community perspectives of the ICC and use of the traditional justice system to settle the ongoing conflict in northern Uganda.

WHEN WE GATHER. . . In Kiswahili, NYUMBANI literally means 'In the house.' NYUMBANI is an encompassing word for many aspects of African life, both symbolic and literal: home and family; one's land and country; language, customs, food, dress, life habits, politics. NYUMBANI is when people meet - from different areas, communities, ethnic-language groups, and countries. NYUMBANI provides a sense of security, mutual help, respect and recognition of the person belonging to the community.

In New York, NYUMBANI is a community of ideas and conversation on Africa. The hope is to emphasize the people and not the circumstances and to be a community of study, discussion and action based on fellowship. We invite those who share our common humanity - Christians, Hindus, Jews, Muslims, and people of all faiths, (or none), who believe in the dignity of the human person. Please join us as dreamers, builders of villages, and as changers for shared humanity.

Please join your Africa-interested colleagues and parishioners as humanitarians to become a NYUMBANI community for the evening, and to consider building bridges with people and a society on the other side of the world – the people of UGANDA.

GREAT UPDATES FROM THE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

HOMELESS SHELTER

After a hectic spring and summer during which the fate of our shelter often seemed precarious, we're thrilled to report that the St. Ignatius Shelter will continue to provide good meals, warm beds and friendship for our homeless neighbors.

There is, though, one big change—we will be converting from a men's to a women's shelter. We're excited to start this new chapter in our ministry and we hope you are, too.

We will be holding an informational session in October (date to follow) in which we'll discuss what this change will mean for us. In fact, though, we don't anticipate that much will change; our procedures will remain the same.

Please get in touch with Chris Halem (chrishalem@yahoo.com or 917-494-7301) if you have any questions in the meantime.

SHOP AND SUPPORT THE YORKVILLE COMMON PANTRY

The online shopping site, Amazon.com has agreed to make donations to The Yorkville Common Pantry, from all purchases which first go through YCP.ORG. This is an easy, free way to help support a very deserving organization. As a sponsoring church, we should always be looking for new ways to help out.

When you are planning to shop online, first go to YCP.org, then search for Amazon. You will be linked to the same Amazon site you are familiar with; make purchases as you usually do. Amazon will send the donation to YCP.

It's that easy to help out a hungry neighbor!

REPORT ON OUR BLOOD DRIVE

SVdP held a successful blood drive on Sunday, September 21, thanks to all who made a donation! Since so many of us are committed to donating regularly, we have made arrangements with the NY Blood Center to hold blood drives every other month on the third Sunday of the month.

The next blood drive will be held on Sunday, November 16, followed by January 18, March 15 and May 17.

ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA HONORED

St. Ignatius Loyola Parish was honored by the Archdiocese and the NY Blood Center last week for increasing our blood donations by more than 300% during the Bicentennial year!

A Mass of Recognition was celebrated by Bishop Sullivan at Saint John The Evangelist. Following the Mass, there was a lovely reception in the diocesan offices. Chris Halem and Pattie Hughes were honored to receive a plaque on behalf of the St. Vincent de Paul Society and the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola.

Increasing our blood donations by more than 300% is quite an accomplishment! Think about how many neighbors we helped, how many lives we saved.

Thanks to all who donated!
