Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lent: Turning Time

Lent begins this coming Wednesday, Ash Wednesday, and concludes on Holy Thursday as the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper begins. For the next six weeks our liturgies will be focusing on the mystery of the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus, the mystery that is at the center of our faith.

Recently I came across a reflection on Lent that reads: “Lent is not a time to remind us that we are burdened with sins. Rather, it is a time to turn to the one who takes away our burdens.” This thought has remained with me as we approach the Lenten Season.

Lent ought to be a time of turning to the Lord who takes away our burdens. In the very first reading for Ash Wednesday we will hear, through the prophet Joel, this plaintive cry from God: “Return to me with your whole heart.” And as ashes are being placed on your forehead that day you may hear these words: “Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel.”

As Lent continues beyond Ash Wednesday, the Scripture readings and prayers of the Mass will often be encouragements to a conversion of heart, literally a “turning” of heart. We will notice how frequently the word “turn” or “turning” comes up in these Lenten Masses. Typical of the Mass prayers are these two from the first week in Lent: “Lord, be close to your people and let us turn to you with all our hearts.” And: “I do not wish the sinner to die, says the Lord, but to turn to me and live.”

To pray that we make this turning movement in our lives is a candid admission that our humanity is off-center and flawed. This is what the Church means by “original sin.” All of us are born into a sinful world with our own propensity to sin. By the tender age of six or seven, we can begin to do what we know is the wrong thing to do. As we mature, and because we live our lives with varying degrees of attention to God, each one of us is called to an ongoing conversion of heart.

I turned to the Lord God and pleaded with him in prayer and petition, in fasting, and in sackcloth and ashes.

Daniel 9:3

We need to regularly bring God into consciousness, lest God become quite peripheral to our lives, someone we turn to occasionally or only at a time of crisis. As we try to allow God to come more fully into our lives, we will discover that this turning to God is impossible, is a wrong turn, without our turning to those in need.

Lent affords a concentrated stretch of time to become more conscious of the God “in whom we live and move and have our being” (Acts 17:28). Here are some thoughts to consider and, hopefully, to act on during these forty days:

- Does God play much part in my day?
- Do I take some time during the day to talk to God about what is going on in my life?
- Am I grateful to God for all my blessings?
- Do I trust in God's promises to me?
- Am I moving away from self-attention and self-interest toward the interests, needs and concerns of those around me?
- Have I been giving a generous share of my time and treasure to those less privileged than I?

How seriously will I take Lent this year?

IGNATIAN SOCIAL JUSTICE

Postcard Campaign for Habitat after all Masses March 5th and 6th

"Coming Home": These words conjure up very personal sentiments for each of us. Home is a place to gather and celebrate with family and friends. It is a place to be contemplative and to rest from the demands of our daily lives. It is something that should be accessible to everyone.

In 2011, Habitat For Humanity - NYC remains committed to promoting affordable housing and financial stability for all New Yorkers. Each year we gather as a community of faith here in God's house to lend our support to the efforts being made by our friends at Habitat For Humanity - NYC who work tirelessly to make the idea of "coming home" possible for many working families in our city.

On the weekend of March 5th and 6th, please join members of Ignatian Social Justice in the Narthex after all Masses to sign a postcard to our legislators to advocate for affordable home-ownership.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

During the Season of Lent, the Church urges the Faithful to reflect a spirit of penance in their daily life through performing acts of fast and abstinence.

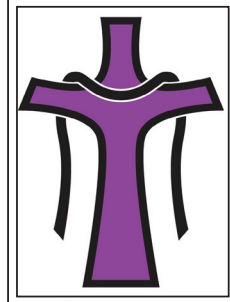

Fasting requires that only one full meal be taken per day. Two other smaller meals may be taken during the day to maintain physical strength, but these two meals together should not equal a full meal in quantity. Fasting obliges all those who have reached the age of 18 and continues to oblige until age 59. Those not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline of fasting to the extent that they are able.

Abstinence prohibits individuals from eating meat on a particular day. Abstinence obliges all those who have reached the age of 14 and continues to oblige throughout their entire life. Those not specifically obliged to abstain from eating meat are encouraged to join in this discipline to the extent that they are able.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence.

Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence.

LENTEN CROSS PROJECT

The members of Ignatian Social Justice invite you to “take something on” this Lenten season and make a commitment to engage in a positive act of service, advocacy or prayer.

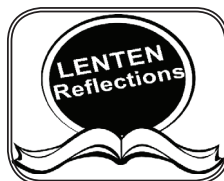

A ribbon identifying your commitment will be attached to our Parish’s Lenten Cross that will remain in the Narthex of the Church throughout Lent.

To learn more about Lenten Cross activities, please visit the sign-up tables in the Narthex after all Masses this weekend. Information is also available in the Parish House and on the website:

LENTEN LECTURES

Where the Hell is God: Holding to Faith through the Tough Times

A lecture by
Rev. Dr. Richard Leonard, S.J.

Thursday, March 10th - 7:00 PM
Wallace Hall

A book signing will follow the lecture.

Copies of "Where the Hell is God?" will be available for sale that evening.

Lent is a time when we move from darkness into light. Our faith in God is easier when everything is going well. But what about the times in our lives when our faith is challenged, undermined, and threatened by the things that happen to us, or to those we love? This Lenten Lecture will help put words around how we can hold to a God who walks with us in the shadow of death and through the valley of tears.

Rev. Dr. Richard Leonard, S.J. directs the Australian Catholic Office for Film and Broadcasting. He is a visiting professor of communications at the Pontifical Gregorian University, Rome and lectures at Jesuit Theological College, Melbourne and The Broken Bay Institute, Sydney.

The Crucifixion in Art History

A slide-lecture by
Rev. Terrence Dempsey, S.J.

Wednesday, March 16th
7:00 PM in Wallace Hall

Drawing on the work of more than twenty artists from the fifth century to the present day, Fr. Dempsey will present a slide-illustrated lecture on the origins of Crucifixion images and how those images have evolved in various cultures over the centuries.

Rev. Terrence Dempsey, S.J., is the May O'Rourke Jay Endowed Chair in Art History and Religion and the founding Director of the Museum of Contemporary Religious Art at Saint Louis University in St. Louis, MO. He has curated over 55 exhibitions, including 40 exhibitions at the Museum of Contemporary Religious Art.
