Solemnity of Pentecost

Pentecost

“All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak....” (Acts 2:4)

A couple of weeks ago as our St. Ignatius Loyola Church staff members were gathered for our regular Tuesday morning meeting, I was struck by how similar we are to the early Church. I am referring particularly to its experience as recounted in the Acts of the Apostles, which we have been reading at Mass throughout this whole Easter season. As the people of God, the Church, we have been trying to preach and live the kerygma, namely, the programmatic declaration of Jesus’ ministry in proclaiming the good news to the poor and oppressed, the blind and the captive. The intensity of our attention and activity to understand, witness to, and communicate the “Good News” of our Lord Jesus Christ to our community and the world is always foremost.

Before we reflect on the great solemnity of Pentecost, let us look back for just a moment at where we have been since we began this liturgical year. Our Church year began, as always, with Advent, the season of prayerful, expectant waiting and preparation for the birth of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. His arrival was followed with great joy and celebration since he, as the Son of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, guides us and prepares our way of return to our Eternal Father.

The subsequent feasts of the Holy Family, St. John, the Holy Innocents, and the solemnity of the Epiphany, strengthened and confirmed Jesus’ role as Son of God.

Our liturgical introduction into Ordinary Time gave us the opportunity to come to know Jesus better through his life, teaching, and ministry in his historical-social environment where he observed his Jewish religion and customs. It is here that Jesus matured and prepared for the redemptive mission that was entrusted to him by his heavenly Father.

After this we entered into the season of Lent, the stirringly dramatic period of the liturgical year from Ash Wednesday until Easter. At this time, through prayer, penance, and almsgiving we the faithful prepared ourselves to experience more dynamically Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum. It was here that the passion of Christ with his death and burial finally culminated in the paschal celebration of Easter and the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The forty days from Easter until the Ascension of the Lord were filled with Jesus’ appearances, at first to a few and then gradually to all his disciples, hundreds of others, and finally to Paul. These were to strengthen the faith of those who believed and convince those who did not believe. Having completed his mission, Jesus returned to the Father, but not before he mandated his disciples, us, to continue to build his Kingdom on earth and draw all creation into it.

Ten days after his ascension, or fifty days after Jesus’ resurrection, the final act of God’s plan of salvation is brought to fulfillment. Jesus does not abandon his followers, but sends his Spirit in the form of the Paraclete on the great solemnity of Pentecost. This is truly the culminating moment of Christ’s paschal mystery and the birth of the Church. The Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, is now the promise and the pledge of humanity’s salvation.

Pentecost can only be understood in the light of salvation history. It is the spiritual wherewithal by which Jesus continues to be present to and in his Church and to empower his people to persist in his redemptive action of service awaiting the Parousia, or Second Coming of Jesus at the end of the world. Until then we praise and thank God for Jesus and the Holy Spirit and the new life we have received at Pentecost.

Ignatian Young Adult Cookbook

The Ignatian Young Adults are putting together a professionally-bound cookbook with full-color photos containing more than 30 recipes for appetizers and desserts.

The IYAs hope to sell this cookbook at the Parish in the fall and are seeking ad sponsors.

If you or your business would like to participate, please contact Katie Bignell at kbignell@gmail.com before Monday, June 13th.

Submission Guidelines

- All ads are a full page (8"x8"). A full-page ad that advertises multiple businesses is also possible.
- Ads are $100 per page. Checks should be made out to St. Ignatius Loyola Parish. Please write "IYA Cookbook Ad" in the memo section and leave it in an envelope with the submission form in care of Fr. SooHoo at the Parish House.
- There are two options for submitting ad content:
 - 1) Submit a print-ready high-res JPEG file
 - File must be at least 2400x2400 pixels, 300 dpi, and must be square.
 - Please note that up to a ½ inch of content may not be fully visible on the right or left side once the ad is placed in the bound book. We suggest leaving a ½ inch margin of non-essential content on both the right and left sides in order to ensure that your ad will be fully readable in the final cookbook.
 - 2) Submit content only and the IYAs will design a simple ad for you
 - Content must be the exact text you wish to appear in the ad. You may also include high-res JPEG files such as your company logo, product photos, etc. Please use the form found on the Parish website to submit content.

Additional information and submission forms can be found on the Parish website:

Sharing Good News!

Over 80 million people live in Ethiopia. 75% of Ethiopian families are subsistence farmers who use pre-medieval era tools. Parts of the population often suffer from the effects of drought and hunger. American Catholics who donate to Catholic Relief Services support an emergency food program which currently feeds 2.5 million people per month. Plus, in the past 5 years, 1.5 million people have begun to receive clean water thanks to CRS. For more information, visit www.crs.org

IGNATIAN SOCIAL JUSTICE

Thank you!

Ignatian Social Justice thanks our parishioners for making the recent Bread for the World Letter Campaign a success.

Over 400 people signed letters, which were then mailed to our representatives in Washington. This outpouring of concern sends a powerful message to our country's political leaders and helps us as a nation move closer to our goal of ending hunger.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Atrium Days:

Tuesdays, June 7th and June 14th
10:00 AM – 8:00 PM

Starting in September 2011, the Inter-parish Religious Education Program (IREP) of St. Ignatius Loyola will be offering a new program of religious formation for preschool children, ages 4 and 5. This is a Montessori-based set of activities in our new classroom space called the Atrium. The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd will draw its inspiration from the support of the Parish at large, as well as from the parents and the children who will participate.

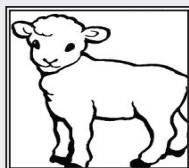

There are many materials needed for use in the Atrium. There is a strong tradition within the Catechesis that all the materials be made from natural sources and that, as much as is practical, they be hand-made.

In keeping with this philosophy, we are looking for people who would like to participate in creating the Atrium at St. Ignatius. We hope to start the ball rolling by declaring Tuesday, June 7th and Tuesday, June 14th "Atrium Days." We will have space and materials ready for your participation from 10:00 AM to 8:00 PM on each of these days. The time commitment is a minimum of two hours. Space is limited, so we will keep it to 6 or 7 people working at one time.

The work includes making and painting small clay figures, painting wooden figures, and finishing wood "furnishings." In addition, we will need a few volunteers who can work on simple sewing and calligraphy projects at home.

If you are interested in participating, please contact Adele Gallo at amdgallo@me.com or 516-528-4660 and book a time slot.

If you would like to volunteer, but Tuesdays are not good for you, let us know. There will likely be alternate dates proposed later.

Summer Mass Schedule Changes

The final Wallace Hall Family Mass of the season will be Sunday, June 26th. The Family Mass will resume on Sunday, September 11th.

Our summer Daily Mass Schedule begins on Monday, June 27th and runs through Friday, September 2nd. During this time the 12:10 PM Daily Mass is discontinued, and both the 8:30 AM and 5:30 PM Masses are celebrated in the Lady Chapel.

Summer "Temps"

The Ministry of Hospitality invites you to "pick a summer weekend" in either July or August and volunteer to serve as an usher at the Mass of your choice. During these months many of our "regulars" are away and additional help is greatly appreciated.

*Please contact Adele Gallo at amdgallo@me.com
if you can serve during July or August.*
