Pope Francis & the World Meeting of Families

God's way of loving becomes the measure of human love.

— Pope Benedict XVI

Great excitement and anticipation surrounds preparations to welcome the Holy Father, oft referred to as the “Pope of Surprises,” to New York! We must keep in mind, though, that Pope Francis’ main reason for visiting is the “World Meeting of Families.” The Holy Father is coming to inspire families in their mission of love in the City of Brotherly Love, Philadelphia.

For the first time since it was instituted by Pope Saint John Paul II in the early nineties, the Pontifical Council of the Family’s World Meeting is coming to the United States. Hundreds of thousands will converge on Philadelphia, the birthplace of American liberty and religious freedom.

The meeting is a joyous celebration of family and faith held every three years. Philadelphia’s Archbishop Charles J. Chaput says that this year’s meeting “is meant to be a gift not just for Catholics in Philadelphia, but for every person of good will in the wider world.”

The theme of the meeting is “Love Is Our Mission: the Family Fully Alive.” The early Church Father Saint Irenaeus famously said that the “glory of God is man fully alive.” Similarly, the preparatory catechesis for the meeting comments that the “glory of men and women is their capacity to love as God loves. Life in a family is the summons to embody this love in everyday life.”

Pope Saint John Paul II stated that “Love is...the fundamental and innate vocation of every human being.” He also wrote, “Man cannot live without love. He remains a being that is incomprehensible for himself, his life is senseless, if love is not revealed to him, if he does not encounter love, if he does not experience it and make it his own, if he does not participate intimately in it” (Redemptor Hominis, 18).

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “The home is the first school of Christian life and a school for human enrichment where one learns...fraternal love, generous — even repeated — forgiveness, and above all divine worship in prayer and the offering of one’s life” (CCC 1657). This school is often referred to as a school of love.

Pope Francis, commenting on the upcoming synod on the family, described the family as the “fundamental cell of society.” He urged the bishops to “keep before [you] the beauty of the family and marriage, the greatness of this human reality which is so simple and yet so rich, consisting of joys and hopes, of struggles and sufferings, as is the whole of life.”

It is no surprise to any of us that the family can face struggles and sufferings. Saint Gianna Beretta Mola (1922– 1962), one of the patron saints of the meeting, was an Italian pediatrician, wife and mother who is best known for saving her unborn child’s life over her own in a difficult pregnancy. St. Gianna said that “love and sacrifice are closely linked, like the sun and the light. We cannot love without suffering and we cannot suffer without love.”

Faith in God alleviates and strengthens us and gives us joy despite our struggles, showing that the “family which experiences the joy of faith communicates it naturally. That family is the salt of the earth and the light of the world; it is the leaven of society.” And again Pope Francis speaks of “the smile and love of a family [that] can light up the world, bringing warmth and hope to communities that have become cold, lifeless and depressed.” We have a great opportunity and responsibility to be families of light and leaven in this world. Our witness to love can move hearts to accept the love of God and bring it to others.

In order to prepare our hearts for the World Meeting of Families later this month, let us spend some time in reflection, prayer and conversation with our families. I leave you with a question from the preparatory catechesis for the meeting. “Love is our mission”: what does “love” mean in your life? How might a mission to love affect your choices, priorities, and ambitions?

Celebrate CASAColumbia® Family Day – Be Involved. Stay Involved.™ on Monday, September 28th!

Family Day is a national initiative created by CASAColumbia to promote simple acts of parental engagement as key ways to help prevent substance use in children and teens. Research shows that children with hands-on parents are far less likely to smoke, drink or use other drugs.

The Church of St. Ignatius Loyola, which was the first church in the nation to support and promote Family Day, and Saint Ignatius Loyola Grammar School will once again be helping to make parents aware of Family Day.

Here are a few ways you can celebrate Family Day:

- Order the completely revised and updated edition of How to Raise a Drug-Free Kid: The Straight Dope for Parents! CASAColumbia founder and St. Ignatius parishioner Joseph A. Califano, Jr., presents a clear, common-sense guide to helping kids stay drug-free. Learn the importance of your child attending weekly religious services and decrease his/her risk of using alcohol or marijuana by half. To learn more, go to drugfreekidbook.org
- Find CASAColumbia Family Day on Facebook and Twitter and share your parenting experiences.
- Check out our Family Day blog to learn more about the importance of parental engagement.

St. Paul: The Story of a Passionate Apostle

Presented by Mr. Brian Pinter

Six Sessions Beginning October 19th
Mondays at 7:00 PM, Parish Lounge

From his apparent beginnings as a slave in Tarsus, to his mystical call on the road to Damascus, to his shipwrecks and imprisonments, to his innovative missionary partnerships with women, Paul stands as an inspiring, fascinatingly controversial, but often misunderstood figure in our church's history. Class presentations will seek to paint a vivid portrait of Paul's life and times while our discussions will explore how his experiences shaped his theology.

Brian Pinter is the former Chaplain and Teacher of Theology at Regis High School. He is currently the Education Associate and Bible scholar-in-residence at Christ Church United Methodist. Mr. Pinter holds degrees in theology and religion from St. Joseph's and Fordham Universities.

Space is limited. Early registration is recommended.
