Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Singing the Body Electric

A non-church-going friend asked me why I go to church. There are two reasons. The first reason is that I love the music. Do you love music? Most people do. Studies suggest that most people have a genetic predisposition to respond to music. Here at St. Ignatius Loyola, we are blessed to have a wonderful, world-class music program. Music may seem like a luxury, but the Catholic Church from its inception believed in the power of music to enhance the worship experience. In the Catholic service, music is not an ornament. Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy calls sacred music an integral part of the liturgy.

Last spring, in one of his homilies, Father Bergen asked the congregation, "Where do you find God in the worship service?" I find God in music. And I believe music is a gift from God. I think there is nothing more exquisite than a beautifully sung renaissance motet. I cry at the end of La Boheme — every time! And I think Ella Fitzgerald should be the new face on the ten dollar bill. Every now and then someone in the congregation will pull me aside and whisper to me, as if they don't want anyone else to hear, "We first started coming here because we like music." Our priests will be very happy to hear that this statement is usually followed by another statement — something to the effect of, "And we liked everything else about the church, so we stayed."

What is it about music that moves us so deeply? The recently deceased neurologist, Oliver Sacks, wrote a book entitled Musicophilia: Tales of Music and the Brain. Much of the book is devoted to case studies of people with disorders such as autism, schizophrenia and Parkinson's disease, and how music is a healing balm in their daily lives. One of the stories tells of a man, a neurologist himself, who after being struck by lightning, developed a newfound passion and talent for playing the piano and composing music. There are people who don't like music. It is a condition called musical anhedonia. It is the inability to find pleasure in music. However, these people are rare. Perhaps they just need to be "struck by lightning".

Did you ever think of your body as a musical instrument? When you sing you are a musical instrument. My job here at St. Ignatius is to encourage people to sing. I can give you many reasons to sing during Mass. Here are a few: The verb "to sing" is one of the most frequently used words in the Bible. Christian liturgy in ancient times was always sung. Again and again the Bible and the Catholic Church instruct us to sing. Science has proven that singing is good for your health. Singing releases endorphins which make human beings happy. That said, there are many people who don't or won't sing, for whatever personal reason they might have. Try singing. You'll feel better. And singing helps keeps you young.

Song of Miriam. Luca Giordano. c. 1687.

The second reason I go to church is because I need to be reminded at least once a week to try and be a better person. I need to be reminded to try to be more loving, more patient, more kind, more generous, more forgiving, more accepting of things that I don't understand. This may seem like a non sequitur, but music gets me into church and then the readings and homilies help remind me to try and do these things. I give thanks for my job at St. Ignatius Loyola and all the people who make it the wonderful place that it is.

Helping the vulnerable in Syria's conflict

More than 12 million persons — more than half of the entire population of the country — are in serious jeopardy due to the ongoing conflict in Syria. Humanitarian access to war affected populations within Syria is an urgent issue, while the inability to provide adequate assistance to meet the basic needs of refugees and host populations in Lebanon, Jordan and other countries of first asylum is a growing threat to both the protection of vulnerable people and the stability and security of the region.

Jesuit Refugee Service is working within Syria, in neighboring countries, along transit routes and within Europe to provide safe spaces for refugees and assist them with food and water, clothing, bedding and medicine, and counseling and education programs.

Your help is needed. Visit www.jrsusa.org/donate to make a secure, tax-deductible donation.

The Hour Children truck is coming! Sunday, October 4th, 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Celebrate CASAColumbia® Family Day – Be Involved. Stay Involved.™ on Monday, September 28th!

Family Day is a national initiative created by CASAColumbia to promote simple acts of parental engagement as key ways to help prevent substance use in children and teens. Research shows that children with hands-on parents are far less likely to smoke, drink or use other drugs.

The Church of St. Ignatius Loyola, which was the first church in the nation to support and promote Family Day, and Saint Ignatius Loyola Grammar School will once again be helping to make parents aware of Family Day.

Here are a few ways you can celebrate Family Day:

- Order the completely revised and updated edition of How to Raise a Drug-Free Kid: The Straight Dope for Parents! CASAColumbia founder and St. Ignatius parishioner Joseph A. Califano, Jr., presents a clear, common-sense guide to helping kids stay drug-free. Learn the importance of your child attending weekly religious services and decrease his/her risk of using alcohol or marijuana by half. To learn more, go to drugfreekidbook.org
- Find CASAColumbia Family Day on Facebook and Twitter and share your parenting experiences.
- Check out our Family Day blog to learn more about the importance of parental engagement.

To learn more about Family Day, visit CASAFamilyDay.org

Celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Saturday, October 3rd at 12:10 PM

Twice a year the parish community gathers for a celebration that touches our hearts in a special way. At a 12:10 Mass on a Saturday, we invite all those who are sick to come forward to receive the sacrament of anointing. The next Liturgy of Anointing will take place on Saturday, October 3rd.

Saint James tells the community, "Are there any who are sick among you? Let them send for the priests of the Church, and let the priests pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith will save the sick persons, and the Lord will raise them up."

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is conferred "to raise up and save" the sick. Those of our parish whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age are invited, indeed urged to receive the sacrament. The sacrament may be repeated if the sick person recovers after being anointed and then again falls ill or if during the same illness the person's condition becomes more serious. Those who suffer from persistent, chronic illnesses should come forward for the sacrament. A sick person may be anointed before surgery whenever a serious illness is the cause of the surgery.

Elderly people may be anointed if they have become notably weakened even though no serious illness is present. Sick children may be anointed if they understand what the sacrament does and feel strengthened by it.

Please join us for this beautiful community moment of prayer.
