Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

The Holiest of Weeks

Today we begin the best week in the Church's liturgical year. Centuries ago it was called Great Week. Nowadays we call it Holy Week, the week we accompany Jesus through his passion, death and resurrection.

We start today with his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, where he is welcomed by a large crowd of his followers enthusiastically acclaiming him as their expected messiah.

Then the multitudes who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna to the Son of David!

'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!'

Hosanna in the highest!"

And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?"

So the multitudes said, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth of Galilee."

— Matthew 21:9–11

On Thursday, we will join him at table for his last supper with his apostles, and we will receive the enduring gift of himself in bread and wine, our food for life's journey. On Friday, we will stand at the foot of the cross beside his mother and feel compassion for him in both his physical and mental agony. On Saturday, we will be quiet and silent around his tomb as we ponder the injustice and cruelty of those who crucified him.

Late on Saturday night, we will celebrate the Vigil of Easter, the Church's most glorious and dramatic liturgy of the year. The service begins in total darkness, an acknowledgment of the darkness that is so very real within us and around us. All sorts of darkness—from our own fears and addictions, to the contempt for human life and dignity that we witness daily in our world. We will gather around a small fire and light the great Easter candle, representing Christ the light of the world. The light from that candle will slowly spread throughout the church to the small, unlit candles held by the congregation. Signs of hope. We will listen to some of the most treasured texts of the Hebrew bible and celebrate the liturgy of the Eucharist. The twenty-three men and women who have been preparing for this night since last September will be formally received into the Church through the sacraments of baptism and confirmation. There is a kind of death and resurrection at work in them on this night as a whole new phase of their life begins.

As we prepare to celebrate this most Holy Week, it is important for us to understand that Jesus was put to death because of the way he lived. He rejected all relationships based on the dominance of one person or group over another. He reached out to the suffering and the shunned.

He knew that his message and lifestyle were an affront and a challenge to the entrenched religious authorities of his time and would surely lead to his death. But this was the way to implement God's loving compassion in this sinful world, and Jesus could not live otherwise. He died because of the most hateful things human beings can do, and yet refused to condemn his persecutors. He died unwilling to define human life as anything less than love and forgiveness. God gave final endorsement to his life by raising him from the dead, and confirming the power of goodness over evil and the triumph of love over hatred. In our times, when so many parts of the world are convulsed by hatred and violence, it is all the more important that our own lives give witness to the way Christ lived his life.

Do come and join us for the liturgies of Holy Week, the Great Week when we connect with our roots, our great traditions. Join us as we pray with the Lord who addressed the problem of evil that is always so current, and who died speaking truth to power. Come and be with the whole Church as we struggle together and find light in darkness. This is not past history. This is our continuing story.

THE TRIDUUM

The MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER will be celebrated on Holy Thursday, April 13th at 7:00 PM. This liturgy marks the beginning of the Triduum of Holy Week.

The LITURGY FOR GOOD FRIDAY will be celebrated on April 14th at 7:00 PM. It is the starkest of all liturgies during the year and includes the chanting of the Passion, Veneration of the Cross, and Holy Communion.

Many churches, including St. Ignatius Loyola, also have a THREE HOURS DEVOTION SERVICE from Noon to 3:00 PM to commemorate the time Jesus hung and died on the cross. This devotion includes meditations on the Seven Last Words of Jesus from the cross. It does not include Holy Communion.

Good Friday is a day of fasting and abstinence

"Fasting" requires that only one full meal be taken per day. Two other smaller meals may be taken during the day to maintain physical strength, but these two meals together should not equal a full meal in quantity. Fasting obliges all those who have reached the age of 18 and continues to oblige until age 59. Those not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline of fasting to the extent that they are able.

"Abstinence" prohibits individuals from eating meat on a particular day. Abstinence obliges all those who have reached the age of 14 and continues to oblige throughout their entire life. Those not specifically obliged to abstain from eating meat are encouraged to join in this discipline to the extent that they are able.

The Easter Vigil

The Easter Vigil liturgy is the most beautiful liturgy in the Roman Catholic Church. Celebrated on Holy Saturday after sunset, the Vigil Mass is regarded as the most important Mass of the liturgical year.

Adults who have never been baptized are baptized at this liturgy. Baptized Christians of other denominations are received into the Church through the sacraments of Confirmation and First Eucharist. Baptized Roman Catholics who have never had religious instruction are confirmed and receive their First Eucharist.

Because it is so rich with detail, the Vigil Mass usually lasts about three hours. We invite you to attend the Vigil service on Saturday, April 15th! Doors will open at 7:30 PM; the service begins at 8:00 PM. Because the Vigil begins in complete darkness, no latecomers will be admitted into the Church until the end of the "Exultet."
