

Church of St. Ignatius Loyola

ESTABLISHED IN 1851 • JESUIT SINCE 1866

September 24, 2017 | Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Jesuits and...

In addition to being committed to the pastoral goals and policies of the Archdiocese of New York, our parish also participates in the apostolic priorities of the Society of Jesus. The characteristics of a Jesuit parish can be summed up in the phrase, “a flair for prayer, a yearning for learning, an attitude of gratitude.” These correspond to what we call The Ignatian Way of prayer, community, and service. About prayer: we are people on fire with passion for the Gospel. About community: we are a discerning community with open horizons. About service: we are companions in the mission of reconciliation and justice.

It is with the element of community chiefly in mind that I am pleased to present this year’s lecture series, “The Jesuits and...” Every six weeks, the parish community is invited to come together for an evening learning about and discussing several diverse works of the Jesuits. Save the dates! The lectures will be on Mondays at 7:00 PM in Wallace Hall.

The inaugural lecture will be on OCTOBER 23RD, and will be co-sponsored by Loyola School. Fr. Steve Katsouros, S.J., former President of Loyola School, is the founding dean and executive director of Arrupe College at Loyola University Chicago. He will speak on The Jesuits and Education. His book, Come to Believe: How the Jesuits Are Reinventing Education (Again), was published in June. An inspirational story, the book serves as both a reflection and a memoir that focuses on the first year of the first Jesuit college for underserved youth, continuing the Jesuit tradition of offering a rigorous liberal arts education to a diverse population, many of whom are the first in their family to pursue higher education.

Our Advent lecture will be The Jesuits and the Arts, on DECEMBER 11TH. Father Tom Lucas, S.J., who was here last year for our 150th Anniversary celebration, will introduce us to the life and works of the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins. Hopkins is considered the first “modern” poet—but not the first neurotic Jesuit! In his illustrated lecture, Fr. Lucas will sketch out the complicated biography of this enigmatic genius, opening up both the poet’s faith and his profound psychological difficulties, with readings of selected poems.

In the new year, on JANUARY 22ND, during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, The Jesuits and Interfaith Dialogue will be our topic. Father Tom Worcester, S.J., President of Regis College in Toronto, whose monumental Cambridge Encyclopedia of the Jesuits was published this year, will recount the fascinating engagement of Jesuits in interfaith and ecumenical dialogue from the origins of the Society to the present day.

The transformative period of Lent is the time to discuss The Jesuits and Church Reform. On THURSDAY—the exception to our Monday rule—FEBRUARY 22ND, bestselling author who lectures globally about leadership, Mr. Chris Lowney will present his most recent book, Everyone Leads: How to Revitalize the Catholic Church. February 22nd is the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter, a good day to reflect on the urgent theme of Pope Francis’ reform of church structures.

We are fortunate to have our closing evening, APRIL 30TH, animated by Kate Hennessy, the granddaughter of Dorothy Day and author of the must-read, “Dorothy Day: The World Will be Saved by Beauty: An Intimate Portrait of My Grandmother.” This evening, co-sponsored by the Ignatian Social Justice Ministry, will reflect on The Jesuits and Social Justice. The love of family, the love of the poor, and the love of her Savior motivated this saintly woman whose memory we will honor.

Save the dates, but rest assured that each lecture will be publicized at the proper time!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

It has come to my attention that many parishioners are unaware of the Parish Ministry Council and its role. Past Annual Reports have merely listed the Ministry Council as one of many parish ministries. I have been remiss in 2 ways: communicating to the parish both the identities of those who serve on the Ministry Council, and reporting on the quarterly meetings of this ministry.

Let me begin by stating that the Ministry Council is not what many would associate with a Parish Council. Acting in a quasi-advisory role to the Pastor, the Ministry Council functions as a forum to exchange information about each ministry by its chair or leader. One of the goals of such an exchange is the promotion of collaboration among the ministries of the parish. The Ministry Council also regularly reviews whether the pastoral needs of the parish are being adequately met through these existing ministries.

The ministries represented at the Ministry Council and their leaders are: Society of St. Vincent DePaul (Teresa Abruzzo); RCIA (Maureen Fullam); Ignatian Social Justice (Pattie Hughes); Family Ministry (Emily Lowe); Ignatian Young Adults (Wyatt Maker); Ministers of Hospitality (Rob Manning); Music Ministries (Kevin McKeever); Boomers and Beyond, Compassionate Care, Emmaus Group and Meeting Christ in Prayer (Kathy Murnion); Lay Ministers' Enrichment (Bill O'Brien); Finance Committee (John O'Brien); IREP (Christine Oehler); LGBTQ (Rose DiMartino and John Vernon); and More Than a Book Club (Patti Hogan and Barbara Lee).

On the evening of September 11th the Ministry Council met and conducted its business in its usual manner. During the meeting I reported on recent parish affairs and new initiatives which are currently being discussed at the parish staff level. All these matters will be disclosed as action is taken on them.

On behalf of all of us at the parish I wish to thank the members of the Ministry Council for their commitment and service to the parish. They are truly our unsung heroes.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Fr. Yesalonia

Next weekend our Parish will take up the annual collection for St. Joseph's Seminary
Thank you in advance for your generosity.

LME FALL PROGRAM

LME invites all parishioners to a day of reflection, prayer, and sharing on

St. Joseph: Companion in Change

Saturday, October 7th

9:30 AM to 3:30 PM

Presenter: Fr. Thomas Feely, S.J.

We are constantly faced with changes in our life circumstances and in our interior lives. When St. Joseph accepted responsibility for Jesus, he embarked on life of change that can make him a model for us. This day will include two presentations, group discussion, and small group faith sharing. The day's two presentations will use imagination to go behind scripture.

The first will reflect on the Flight into Egypt, seeing St. Joseph as a model for facing changes in our life circumstances. The second will reflect on the Finding in the Temple and family life in Nazareth, seeing St. Joseph as a model for meeting changes in our interior life.

The day includes breakfast, lunch, and will conclude with Mass.

To register, scan the QR code at left, visit
