Recordings from the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola

With the Choir of St. Ignatius Loyola and the N.P. Mander Pipe Organ

Wondrous Love

Led by Music Director Kent Tritle, the Choir of St. Ignatius shines in our newest recording featuring stunning a cappella works spanning 1,000 years of sacred music. Including Hailstork's Motherless Child, MacMillan's Christus Vincit, Bach's Komm, Jesu, komm and much more.

Les Corps Glorieux: Music for Organ, Harp & Violoncello This sublime collection features organist Nancianne Parrella, harpist Victoria Drake and cellist Arthur Fiacco in original works and transcriptions by Saint-Saëns, Handel, Messiaen, Mägi and Henri Büsser's exquisite Sleep of the Infant Jesus.

Jubilations!

Joy abounds in this collection of music for organ, brass and percussion. Nancianne Parrella, organ; St. Ignatius Brass; Kent Tritle, conductor. Includes works of Vierne, Eben, Strauss, Bliss, Widor, White and Guilmant.

Silent Night: Music for Advent & Christmas

A holiday favorite! Featuring the acclaimed Choir of St. Ignatius singing chant, motets and carols of the season, plus organ music of Bach and Brahms. This recording will surely put you in the Christmas spirit!

O Vos Omnes: Music for Lent & Holy Week

The meditative mood of the holiest of seasons, including Allegri's enchanting Miserere, Gregorian chant and Renaissance motets of Palestrina and Byrd, movingly performed by the Choir of St. Ignatius.

Durufié: Requiem

Durufié's extraordinarily beautiful Requiem performed in its original version for choir and organ, featuring the Choir with Metropolitan Opera soprano Kaaren Erickson, cellist Arthur Fiacco and organist Nancianne Parrella. Remastered in 2005.

Rachmaninov: Vespers (All-Night Vigil)

Rachmaninov's moving All-Night Vigil is a monumental choral setting of the Russian Orthodox vigil service, blending traditional Russian chant with glorious harmonies.

The Romantic Organ

One of Audiophile Audition's Best Recordings of the Year for 1996. Includes works of Mendelssohn, Bruckner, Brahms, Liszt, Widor and more. Kent Tritle, organ.

Kent Tritle at St. Ignatius Loyola

The first recording of Kent Tritle and the N.P. Mander Pipe Organ from 1994 demonstrating the power and subtlety of this magnificent instrument. Features works of Franck, Durufié, Persichetti, Bach, De Grigny and more.

CD: Creating the Stradivarius of Organs and The Organistas by Bert Shapiro

A behind-the-scenes look at the remarkable journey of the design and installation of St. Ignatius Loyola's magnificent N.P. Mander Pipe Organ.

The Organistas, winner of The Directors Choice Award at the 2005 Black Maria Film Festival, features discussions and performances with organ designers, builders and master musicians revealing their passion for the "King of Instruments." $35.00 + $3.00
