World Day of the Sick

This year, on February 11th, we celebrate the 20th World Day of the Sick. Our Lady first appeared to Bernadette Soubirous on February 11, 1858. This year, Pope Benedict XVI has chosen the theme: Stand up and walk, your faith has saved you. And in his message for this year’s celebration, he unites two sacraments of healing: the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick and the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The principal task of the Church is proclaiming the Kingdom of God. But this very proclamation must be a process of healing: ‘bind up the broken-hearted’ according to the charge entrusted by Jesus to his disciples. The link between the body and the spirit helps us to understand better the “sacraments of healing.” Jesus illustrates this in the story of the healing of the paralyzed man lowered through the roof of the house by his friends. He first tells the man that his sins are forgiven. Then Jesus commands him to get up and walk. Sickness is not the punishment for sin, but sin is a kind of sickness that needs healing as much as any physical ailment.

The Church makes her own the call of the Apostle Paul: “So we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God” (2 Corinthians 5:20). Jesus, during His life, proclaimed and made present the mercy of the Father. He came not to condemn but to forgive and to save, to give hope in the deepest darkness of suffering and sin, and to give eternal life. Thus in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, in the “medicine of confession,” the experience of sin does not degenerate into despair but encounters the Love that forgives and transforms.

So much of the pain in our world is the result of the injustice of society more than that of the individual sinner. This month we honor an African saint, Josephine Bakhita, who illustrates this. She was born in approximately 1869 in Darfur in Sudan. At the age of nine she was kidnapped by slave-traders, and later sold five times in the slave-markets of Sudan. Eventually she found herself working as a slave for a man and his wife who flogged her every day. As a result of this she bore 144 scars throughout her life.

In 1882, Bakhita was bought by an Italian merchant and moved to Italy. Here, after the terrifying masters who had owned her up to that point, Bakhita came to know a totally different kind of master: the God of Jesus Christ. She came to know that this Lord knew her, created her, and actually loved her. What is more, this Master had himself accepted the destiny of being flogged and was waiting for her “at the Father’s right hand.” Now she had “hope” — no longer simply the modest hope of finding masters who would be less cruel, but the great hope: “I am definitively loved.” She understood what Paul meant when he reminded the Ephesians that previously they were without hope and without God in the world — without hope because without God. Hence, when she was about to be taken back to Sudan, Bakhita refused. She did not wish to be separated again from her true Master.

On January 9, 1890, Bakhita was baptized, confirmed, and received her first Holy Communion. On December 8, 1896, in Verona, she took her vows in the Congregation of the Canossian Sisters and from that time onwards, besides her work in the sacristy and in the porter’s lodge at the convent, she made several journeys around Italy in order to promote the missions. Bakhita felt she had to extend the liberation that she had received to the greatest possible number of people. The hope born in her, which had “redeemed” her, she could not keep to herself. This hope had to reach everybody.

On this World Day of the Sick let us pray not only for those who are physically ill, but also for our morally sick world that inflicts so much suffering on people, especially the poor. May we experience the healing hand of Jesus in the Sacrament of Reconciliation! May He, in turn, make us messengers of healing to all, as we visit the sick, offer forgiveness to all, and work tirelessly for justice that will heal our broken world.

ANNUAL PETER’S PENCE COLLECTION
FEBRUARY 11-12, 2012
Office of the Archbishop
1011 First Avenue
New York, NY 10022

February 5, 2012
Dear Friends in the Lord:
Sadly, each year brings tragedies to different corners of the globe.
All too often, local authorities alone are unable to address the immense property and natural resource damages, not to mention the tremendous personal pain and suffering caused by these occurrences.
The Holy Father, when he travels abroad and when he is at home in the Vatican, daily receives countless appeals for assistance from nations and people in dire need of the essentials of life – food, clothing, and shelter. The annual Peter’s Pence Appeal, a collection taken up in parishes throughout the world, is the principal means by which the Holy Father is able to care for our hurting brothers and sisters in the Lord. Our participation in this appeal enables us here in the Archdiocese to demonstrate our fidelity to the Holy Father, as well as to express our solidarity with those less fortunate than ourselves.
Please, therefore, be as generous as you can possibly be in your offering to this year’s Peter’s Pence Appeal, which is scheduled for the weekend of February 11th and February 12th. In doing so, you will be collaborating with the Holy Father in the crucially important work of the Lord – caring for others.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,
Faithfully in Christ,
+Cardinal-designate Timothy M. Dolan
Archbishop of New York

Postcard Campaign for Habitat for Humanity-NYC after all Masses February 4th and 5th

Coming Home:
These words conjure up very personal sentiments for each of us.

Home is a place to gather and celebrate with family and friends. It is a place to be contemplative and to rest from the demands of our daily lives. It is something that should be accessible to everyone.

In 2012, Habitat For Humanity-NYC remains committed to promoting affordable housing and financial stability for all New Yorkers.

Each year we gather as a community of faith here in God’s house to lend our support to the efforts being made by our friends at Habitat For Humanity-NYC who work tirelessly to make the idea of “coming home” possible for many working families in our city.

Please join members of Ignatian Social Justice in the Narthex after all Masses this weekend to sign a postcard to our legislators to advocate for affordable home-ownership.

Interfaith Dialogue
We are seeking interested parishioners who have knowledge of Catholic Social Teaching and can commit to a monthly 90-minute meeting for interfaith dialogue with members of other faith traditions.

To be considered for this group, please email boyled@stignatiusloyola.org with your contact information and a brief statement explaining why you would like to participate.
