FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Last year at this time I wrote a bulletin essay about Tertianship, the last stage of formation as a Jesuit. I explained that as part of my tertian studies I would be away from the Parish for a time over the summer in order to engage in study and a 30-day retreat.

This summer I will be experiencing the final phase of Tertianship: a period of immersion in an area unrelated to a Jesuit’s usual daily ministry. For me this will take the form of a pilgrimage retreat to Spain from July 7th – August 5th. Among the sites I will be visiting are Loyola, Pamplona (where Ignatius was injured), Montserrat (where Ignatius laid down his sword), Manresa (where Ignatius wrote the Spiritual Exercises), and Salamanca (where Ignatius engaged in studies).

I am grateful to Father Bergen, who will be coordinating the pastoral needs of the Parish while I am away. Please pray for me this summer. And count on my continued prayers for you.

Rev. George M. Witt, S.J.
Pastor
