Welcome, Maureen!

Please join us in extending a warm welcome to Maureen Haley, the new Children’s Choir Director at the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola.

Maureen received her Bachelor of Arts degree with a concentration in piano from Penn State University, and her Master of Music with a concentration in voice from Queens College, CUNY. She is a Professor of aural skills and music theory at Adelphi University and also teaches voice and piano privately.

Maureen has been a soprano in the professional choir of St. Ignatius since 1990. Her two teenage daughters were baptized here. She is grateful for the opportunity to serve this great Parish in this new capacity and welcomes your support and prayers for the success of this ministry and for the youth who are part of it.
