The season of Lent is upon us once again. It begins this Wednesday with the traditional imposition of ashes, and runs just over six weeks, concluding as the Mass of the Lord’s Supper opens on Holy Thursday.

For many centuries Lent has offered Christians an opportunity to take stock of their response to the call of Christ and to discern necessary changes. The Greek word for the kind of change to which we are invited during Lent is metanoia. Literally, metanoia refers to a change of mind, a change of heart, and it entails a turning away from selfishness and self-interest to greater awareness of God and others.

Even the best among us needs such conversion. Since we are human, we are imperfect, but we are constantly presented with new opportunities for change and for greater likeness to Christ. This side of the grave, we will always have more to learn about turning our lives over to God and about being more generous toward others, especially those we find most challenging.

As Lent begins this year, we find ourselves in the midst of a parish-wide celebration of the Ignatian Way. This year-long observance has been marked by a series of activities based on three essential components of Ignatian Spirituality: prayer, service, and community. St. Ignatius himself was deeply committed to these as pathways to greater holiness, and instilled their profound importance in his Jesuit companions.

Over time, participation in these Ignatian components leads a person to a wider view of God’s concern. Ignatius himself founded the Jesuits on the premise that the entire world was a worthy vineyard, that every person warranted attention, and that no good work on behalf of the gospel was to be excluded from our list of potential ministries. Part of the metanoia to which we are called as followers of Jesus is precisely this wider view.

An important implication of Ignatius’ vision is that the call to follow Jesus in today’s world necessarily involves a concern for justice. One of our Jesuit documents puts it this way: “The Gospel demands a life freed from egoism and self-seeking, from all attempts to seek one’s own advantage and from every form of exploitation of one’s neighbor. It demands a life in which the justice of the Gospel shines out in a willingness…to recognize and respect the rights of all, especially the poor and the powerless” (GC 32, 4, 18).

Of course there are countless ways that our concern for justice may manifest itself. Some are called to direct action on behalf of those living in unjust situations; others are called to study and to teach the underlying causes of injustice, or to help fund such efforts; still others are called to acts of solidarity, or to prayer. There is no lack of opportunity for involvement.

What is needed, however, is metanoia. In order to help facilitate this, our Lenten theme this year is Faith That Does Justice: Living the Ignatian Way. Each of the opportunities for prayer, service, and community presented through the Lenten Cross Project will contain a justice component. Additionally, each week the bulletin will contain an insert to aid reflection on particular challenges to a faith that does justice. And we will pray for social justice causes during our Sunday and weekday Masses.

In all of this, we trust in God’s help. Consider this sentiment from our Jesuit documents, “We do not acquire this attitude of mind by our own efforts alone. It is the fruit of the Spirit who transforms our hearts and fills them with the power of God’s mercy, that mercy whereby He most fully shows forth His justice by drawing us, unjust though we are, to His friendship” (GC32, 4, 18).

May this Lenten Season be a time of grace-filled metanoia for each of us. Have a blessed Lent.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,
Thank you to everyone who participated in last Saturday’s Ignatian Way Dinner. Coming as it did at the close of the Archdiocesan Feeding Our Neighbors food drive, it was a wonderful opportunity to blend the Ignatian Way components of prayer, service, and community. We shared a wonderful meal – including dozens of homemade desserts – and listened to an eloquent and heartfelt presentation by Maureen Albert, coordinator of the Community Food Pantry at St. Gregory the Great.

You will be happy to know that over the course of the week 25 crates of food were donated by the Parish and delivered to St. Gregory’s.

Your generosity has also been evident in the response to our Annual Appeal. I have been encouraged by the early returns and am grateful to those who have given. A reminder letter will soon be going out to those who have not yet made a donation.

God bless you for your continued support of our Parish!

Now Available at the Parish House:
SIX MINUTE REFLECTIONS FOR LENT
A small booklet of prayers and reflections for the Lenten Season is available at the Parish House. Based on the writings of the late Bishop Kenneth Untener of Saginaw, Michigan, these booklets have been well received in past years. The goal is to find six minutes of quiet time each day during Lent and work through the booklet one day at a time. Cost: $1.00

For Lenten prayer this year, in addition to the “Little Black Book,” we are recommending a small booklet by Rev. Scott Hurd of the Archdiocese of Washington, D. C.
A brief suggestion for prayer, based on the Scriptures of the day, is given for every day from Ash Wednesday through Good Friday. The Living Gospel: Daily Devotions for Lent 2013 is available for $2 at the Parish House.

During the Season of Lent, the Church urges all the Faithful to reflect a spirit of penance in their daily life through fast and abstinence. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence. Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence. Fasting requires that only one full meal be taken per day. Two other smaller meals may be taken during the day to maintain physical strength, but these two meals together should not equal a full meal in quantity. Fasting obliges all those who have reached the age of 18 and continues to oblige until age 59. Those not specifically obliged to fast are encouraged to join in the discipline of fasting to the extent that they are able. Abstinence prohibits individuals from eating meat on a particular day. Abstinence obliges all those who have reached the age of 14 and continues to oblige throughout their entire life. Those not specifically obliged to abstain from eating meat are encouraged to join in this discipline to the extent that they are able.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

Registrations begin this weekend. As we follow along the Ignatian Way this Lent, we invite you to commit to an act of prayer, service, or community. Through next weekend, participants can review a list of suggested activities and commit to an action at sign-up tables in the Narthex after Mass. Participants will write their commitment on tags that will be attached to ribbons. These ribbons will be displayed on a large cross that will remain in the Narthex throughout Lent.

LENTEN CROSS PROJECT

LENTEN FOOD DRIVE

It is estimated that 1.5 million New Yorkers rely on soup kitchens and food pantries. Food insecurity is an on-going struggle for many families and individuals.
