Prayer

The main purpose of the Society is to increase the spirituality of its members. We do this through our work with the poor. The Vincentian Rule notes, “In every Conference throughout the world and in their personal lives, Vincentians raise their prayers to God, united with the prayer of Christ, on behalf of one another and their masters the poor, whose suffering they wish to share.” (The Rule, Confederation International of Saint Vincent de Paul, October 2003, p. 9). This call to prayer manifests itself throughout our lives as Vincentians. We pray together before and after each meeting, before and after home visits, and often during home visits with those we are visiting. We pray together each year during our annual district-wide Mass, which includes all New York Conferences, and we pray individually as we reflect on our encounters with the poor.

Community

Community is a large part of our identity as Vincentians. We work together through our local conferences which meet every other week to pray and to plan. As a community we make decisions about the work we do and the people we help. The support of our Vincentian community helps us as we strive to emulate the Vincentian virtues of simplicity, humility, gentleness, selflessness, and zeal. Here in New York, our community is not only our own St. Lawrence O’Toole Conference, but Vincentian conferences in other parishes. We join with them for many ministries and celebrations, including the Friends of the Poor Walk held each year in September and the Advent Food Drive that we do in conjunction with the Conference of St. Gregory the Great on the west side. And our community extends beyond New York to the Northeast Region, the United States Conference, and, finally, the International Conference. Community is an essential part of our Vincentian identity. The Rule of the Society states, “Members throughout the world, together with other communities, inspired by the spirituality of St. Vincent de Paul and with those whom they help, form a single family.” (The Rule, Confederation International of Saint Vincent de Paul, October 2003, p. 14.) And one of our young members recently summed up our community this way, “I hang out with a bunch of [people] who range in age from 26 to 60 and we kick it together and get involved.”

Service

Service, particularly service to the poor, is at the heart of a Vincentian vocation. It is through our service to the poor that we strengthen our union with Christ, the ideal helper and lover of the poor. Our Rule tells us, “The vocation of the Society’s members . . . is to follow Christ through service to those in need and so bear witness to His compassionate and liberating love.” (The Rule, Confederation International of Saint Vincent de Paul, October 2003, p. 6.)

Here in the St. Lawrence O’Toole Conference, we help the poor in a number of ways. Since last October, when I took over as President, we have helped 14 individuals and families, and have given a total $13,189.44 to assist them with rent, food, gas and electric bills, and other necessities. We run a soup kitchen that meets on the third Saturday of every month. We feed, on average, 180 people. We run a women’s shelter which meets every other weekend from November through April. We serve 12 women each Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evening of shelter weekends. We go to Ronald McDonald House on the second Tuesday of every month where we feed and serve families of children suffering from cancer. In this ministry we help about 150 people monthly. During Advent, which is coming soon, we sponsor the Christmas Angel program, which provides gifts for 400 people, and we run toy and food drives.

We are able to do our work in large part because of the support we get from our pastor, Father Witt, our spiritual advisor, Fr. Ugo, the wonderful staff, and particularly from you, our fellow parishioners. You have been generous with your time, talents, and money. We pray for you during our meetings and we know that you will continue to support and pray for us. Thank you!

ELECTION 2012

Message from the U.S. Bishops:
The Virtue of Prudence

The Church encourages Catholics to develop the virtue of prudence, which enables us “to discern our true good in every circumstance and to choose the right means of achieving it” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1806). Prudence shapes and informs our ability to deliberate over available alternatives, to determine what is most fitting to a specific context, and to act. Prudence must be accompanied by courage which calls us to act. As Catholics seek to advance the common good, we must carefully discern which public policies are morally sound. A good end does not justify an immoral means. At times Catholics may choose different ways to respond to social problems, but we cannot differ on our obligation to protect human life and dignity and help build through moral means a more just and peaceful world.

Last weekend the world rejoiced at the Canonization of Kateri Tekakwitha and Marianne Cope. In their lives we see various aspects of the Catholic life exemplified.

Kateri Tekakwitha, a Native American, was part of a population listening to the call of Christ through the efforts of the missionaries, most of whom were French. She took seriously the lessons taught her and wanted to live a deeply ascetic life. Kateri looked past those who would belittle her commitment to Christ to the reality that she must always draw closer to her Savior.

How often do we fail to speak a word of truth or act upon the demands of the Gospel simply because we don’t want to stand out in a crowd? Marianne Cope, a Franciscan Sister, was an immigrant to our country. Like so many others who appreciated all that she received from her adopted land and her beloved faith community she entered religious life.

Her ministry was truly dynamic: teacher, nurse, superior, and ultimately with Father Damien of Molokai, the servant of the outcast. She teaches us that we must be open to the Holy Spirit throughout our lives. Until God calls us, we cannot say, “He is finished with us.”

No matter our age, we need to recognize the fact that we have a mission from our Baptism to preach, teach, and sanctify. The world needs to hear God’s Word and we are His instruments.

Catholics in the Public Square
The Landscape since Vatican II presented by
FR. THOMAS MASSARO, S.J.
Wednesday, October 31st
at 7:00 PM in Wallace Hall
What principles have guided and should guide Catholics as they participate in public life today? It is easy enough to recall and describe discrete momentary controversies regarding, for example, Catholic politicians and church leaders. But this presentation seeks to survey the broader landscape to discern the lasting features of Catholic participation in secular political life and engagement in the public over the last half-century.

Fr. Thomas Massaro, S.J., is the new Dean of Jesuit School of Theology of Santa Clara University. A native New Yorker and a graduate of Regis High School, he taught as Professor of Moral Theology for fifteen years at the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry and its predecessor, Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge. Father Massaro holds a doctorate in Christian social ethics from Emory University. Among the seven books he has produced are two volumes offering an ethical evaluation of American social welfare policies, as well as three editions of the popular classroom text Living Justice: Catholic Social Teaching in Action.
