HURRICANE RELIEF
Thank you for the overwhelming response to Metropolitan Hospital’s request for clothing last weekend. Bags and bags of items arrived at the Parish House and filled the Wallace Hall entryway. Representatives from Metropolitan Hospital were astonished by the amount of clothing that was given and were overwhelmed by the generosity of our parishioners. Thanks also to the members of our St. Vincent de Paul Society who spent hours sorting the donations.

This weekend a special Archdiocesan collection will be taken to assist those whose lives have been torn apart by Hurricane Sandy. Thank you in advance for your continued generosity.

The Spirituality of St. Ignatius
Monday, November 12th

Presented by Rev. Fred Pellegrini, S.J.
Rector of the St. Ignatius Loyola Jesuit Community
Join us for a three-part seminar, designed in concert with our parish’s celebration of The Ignatian Way, as we explore some of the tenets and insights of the spirituality of St. Ignatius.

Representatives of this Fair Trade economic justice project of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd will be selling handcrafts made by women in 20 countries throughout the developing world. Your support makes a tremendous difference in their lives.

Please join us in Wallace Hall to celebrate fair trade.

IGNATIAN YOUNG ADULTS

IYA Advent Reflection Group

Sundays: November 25th, December 2nd, 9th, & 16th

6:00 – 7:15 PM in the Parish Lounge

The Ignatian Young Adults (20s and 30s) are sponsoring a sharing group during Advent. The spirituality of the season will be explored by using Richard Rohr's book, Preparing for Christmas: Daily Meditations for Advent, as a starting point. During each meeting, facilitated by a young adult peer leader, there will be an opportunity to reflect more deeply on the daily readings of the season of Advent.

RSVP by Sunday, November 18th to Fr. Anthony SooHoo, S.J.: soohooa@stignatiusloyola.org

Please bring a copy of Richard Rohr’s book to the first meeting. It can be purchased online at amazon.com

We highly encourage those interested in participating to make a commitment to being present at all of the sessions. This will ensure a deeper and more prayerful experience for all involved.

ATTENTION LECTORS: Copies of the new Workbook for Lectors, Year C, 2013 (beginning the First Sunday of Advent, Dec. 2nd), are available for $10 at the Parish House reception desk.

Thank you for remembering those in need during the holiday season.

SVDP CHRISTMAS ANGEL PROJECT:

Begins November 17th!

It has become a tradition at St. Ignatius Loyola for our parishioners to purchase Christmas gifts for parishioners in low-income parishes. Beginning the weekend of November 17th and 18th, participants will be able to select angel cards that will be placed in the Narthex and Wallace Hall. Cards will also be available at the Parish House while the supply lasts.

Gifts must be returned to the Parish House no later than Sunday, December 9th.

From the Archdiocese: A November Reflection

As nature sheds her colors, the Church reminds herself in a powerful way of the destiny of each human being as planned by our loving God: eternity with Him.

This month began with the celebration of those members of our ecclesial family who “finished the race and won the crown” because of Divine mercy. Then we continued by reflecting on the needs of the souls in purgatory. This Catholic doctrine is one which we should remember and take confidence in as believers. The Sacred Scripture recalls the deeds of Judas Maccabeus in which he “made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sins” (2 Maccabees 12:45).

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches: “All who die in God’s grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.” (CCC 1030)

Let us remember our loved ones during the month of November – the month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory – by participating in the Eucharist, spending time in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, meditating on the Stations of the Cross, and performing works of Charity.

There is a Church in Rome which contains the bones of monks from the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. In front of them is a sign in many languages: “Where you are now, we once were: where we are now, you will be.” Let us pray for those who have gone before, so that they may pray for heaven for us.
