On the night before He died, Jesus prayed that His disciples might be one, as He and the Father are one — a oneness that we can hardly imagine. The early disciples tried to live out this unity in their daily lives. We read in the Acts of the Apostles in the first chapter, verse 14:

All these devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.

And again, in the first verse of chapter two:

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together.

Later in that same chapter we read:

All who believed were together and had all things in common.

The early Church had her birth at Pentecost, while the disciples were gathered in prayer as one community. After Pentecost, they continued living in unity. And so at the beginning of the Church, there was a close unity expressing both the desire and the prayer of Jesus at the Last Supper. Over the course of the centuries, this unity was lost for many reasons, as Christians forgot their common origin and lost sight of the prayer of Jesus.

When Pope John XXIII called the Second Vatican Council, non-Catholic observers were invited as a sign that the Pope earnestly desired that we may once again be one. In the Decree on Ecumenism, promulgated in 1964, we read as the opening paragraph:

The restoration of unity among all Christians is one of the principal concerns of the Second Vatican Council. Christ the Lord founded one Church and one Church only. However, many Christian communions present themselves to men as the true inheritors of Jesus Christ; all indeed profess to be followers of the Lord but differ in mind and go their different ways, as if Christ himself were divided (cf. 1 Corinthians 1:13). Such division openly contradicts the will of Christ, scandalizes the world and damages the holy cause of preaching the Gospel to every creature.

The week of prayer for Church unity, begun long before the Council, expresses the yearning of many Christians that we may one day reflect that beautiful sense of unity we find in the early Church. Thirty years after the Decree on Christian Unity of the Council, John Paul II tried to re-ignite the fire of desire for this unity in his letter, Ut Unum Sint — “That They May Be One.” In that letter he writes:

The courageous witness of so many martyrs of our century, including members of Churches and Ecclesial Communities not in full communion with the Catholic Church, gives new vigor to the Council’s call and reminds us of our duty to listen to and put into practice its exhortation. These brothers and sisters of ours, united in the selfless offering of their lives for the Kingdom of God, are the most powerful proof that every factor of division can be transcended and overcome in the total gift of self for the sake of the Gospel.

Christ calls all his disciples to unity. My earnest desire is to renew this call today, to propose it once more with determination, repeating what I said at the Roman Coliseum on Good Friday 1994. There I stated that believers in Christ, united in following in the footsteps of the martyrs, cannot remain divided.

This week of prayer should be a time when we reach out in prayer and charity to all those who are Christians, who share our common baptism and our love for Jesus, the Lord. May this week intensify our desire for the day when we will all truly be one around the one table of the Lord!

Inner-City Scholarship Fund

For generations, Catholic schools have served boys and girls in the poorest areas of New York City. Inner-City Scholarship Fund, a not-for-profit organization founded in 1971, provides tuition assistance to students from low-income families who wish to attend Catholic schools within the Archdiocese of New York’s inner-city, thus making a values-based Catholic education a viable choice for all children.

On Sunday morning, January 26th, representatives from Inner-City Scholarship Fund will be visiting St. Ignatius Loyola Parish to provide information about how you can make a tangible difference for the children who are suffering the greatest educational disadvantage.

You can also visit www.icsf-nyc.org or call Kelvin Gentles at (646) 794-3328 to learn more about Inner-City Scholarship Fund.

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

On behalf of the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, thank you for your support of our fall and Advent drives. As a result of your contributions, families across this city were able to fully experience the essence of the holiday season.

Your donations to the Thanksgiving Drive gave dozens of families a turkey with all the trimmings, while the children of St. Mary of the Assumption Parish experienced the joy of a new toy for Christmas through your offerings to the Toy Drive. With your donations of 400 gifts to the Christmas Angel Project, parishioners of The Most Holy Redeemer Church in the East Village and the Church of the Ascension on West 107th Street woke on Christmas morning to the tangible expression of our parish’s generous spirit wrapped up in brightly colored paper.

God bless you and may you have a Blessed New Year!

Rev. Gregory C. Chisholm, S.J. Pastor, St. Charles Borromeo Church

Saturday, January 25th

9:30 AM – 3:30 PM, Wallace Hall

Grounded in both Ignatian and Franciscan traditions of contemplation and action, Pope Francis has revolutionized the encounter between Catholicism and the person on the street. He has shifted the church’s focus beyond divisive issues to the joys of the Gospel and of direct encounter with persons just as they are. This is very encouraging as the worldwide church begins the Year of the Family. What do his teaching and example say to us as Lay Ministers as we consider the experience of “family” in our city, in our church, and in our ministry?
