SCRIPTURE CLASSES

Women in the Bible, Part II

Six Sessions Beginning September 18th

Mondays at 11:00 AM in the Meeting Room

(Note: Due to the Columbus Day holiday, that week's session will meet on Tuesday, October 10th)

From Sarah to Syntyche, from Rebekka to Ruth, from Miriam to Mary, women have been God's indispensable partners in the unfolding drama of our faith, often fulfilling unexpected and vital roles.

We will continue our study of biblical women as we meet Miriam and the Hebrew midwives who save Moses' life, the daughters of Zelophehad – early advocates of women rights, Ruth – an outsider who shows extraordinary fidelity to Israel's God, and Judith – a beautiful widow who delivers Israel from powerful foes. We will also explore the role of women in the early church and how that role dramatically changed within a generation.

When Bad Things Happen to Good People:

The Book of Job

Six Sessions Beginning September 18th

Mondays at 7:00 PM in the Meeting Room

(Note: Due to the Columbus Day holiday, that week's session will meet on Tuesday, October 10th)

As we mature in our faith we are inevitably confronted with difficult questions—do things happen for a reason? Why do good people suffer? Is there any connection between our deeds and what happens to us? Why is life unfair? Is God really loving and just?

The book of Job explores these with uncompromising honesty—the main character, Job, goes so far as to accuse God of being an overpowering bully who has some explaining to do! And God's response to Job's questions—our questions—is stunning.

All sessions led by Brian Pinter, Education Associate and Bible scholar-in-residence at Christ Church United Methodist.
