Women in the Bible, Part II

Six Sessions Beginning September 18th

Mondays at 11:00 AM in the Meeting Room

(Note: Due to the Columbus Day holiday, that week's session will meet on Tuesday, October 10th)

Women have been God's indispensable partners in the unfolding drama of our faith, often fulfilling unexpected and vital roles. In addition to meeting more remarkable women from the Hebrew Scriptures, we will also explore the role of women in the early church and how that role dramatically changed within a generation.

Join us as we reflect on the wisdom and witness of these remarkable women.

When Bad Things Happen to Good People: The Book of Job

(Note: Due to the Columbus Day holiday, that week's session will meet on Tuesday, October 10th)

As we mature in our faith we are inevitably confronted with difficult questions—do things happen for a reason? Why do good people suffer? Is there any connection between our deeds and what happens to us? Why is life unfair? Join us as we explore the Bible's reflection on these questions—the timeless, magnificent book of Job.

Join us as we explore one of the most magnificent, sublime pieces of literature ever written, the book of Job.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I am very happy to inform you of two recent appointments to the parish staff.

Mr. Jamie MacGuire joins us as Director of Development. He will have the responsibility of coordinating and managing the fundraising efforts of the parish. His experience and skills will be of great assistance to us as we prepare to participate in the Renew + Rebuild Capital Campaign of the Archdiocese of New York. More information about this campaign will be forthcoming.

Mr. Bob Cisternino joins us as Director of Facilities. He will have the responsibility of keeping in good working order the physical plant of the church, Parish House, day nursery, and grammar school. Good facilities management is essential to the daily operations of the parish. Bob comes to us with a proven track record at several NYC hotels.

Please join me in extending warm welcomes to Jamie and Bob, and let us remember to keep them in our prayers as they take on these significant responsibilities.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Fr. Yesalonia
