SCRIPTURE CLASSES

Praying with the Women of the Gospels

Six Sessions Beginning September 17th

Mondays at 11:00 AM

Parish Lounge

Our Catholic tradition teaches us to engage Scripture with both the head and the heart. Class meetings will combine study of women in the Gospels with different forms of praying with the Bible, including Lectio Divina, Ignatian Imaginative prayer, and Biblical Meditation.

Join us as we study and pray with Pilate's wife, the woman with the hemorrhage, the persistent widow, the Syrophenician woman, the widow who gave two pennies, and the Samaritan woman at the well.

Brian Pinter, Pastoral Associate, will lead the discussion.

To register, email WomenofGospelClass@gmail.com

God's Command to Speak Out

Six Sessions Beginning September 17th

Mondays at 7:00 PM

Gonzaga Meeting Room

In the Bible stories there are kinds of silence—the silence of prayer, of awe, of fear. There is also a coerced silence, a silence that is imposed by oppression. And, there are courageous voices that break that oppressive silence; voices that intrude on the powerful, resisting the domination of a single voice. Our presentations will explore the stories of those who answered God's call to speak out.

Brian Pinter, Pastoral Associate, will lead the discussion.
